

21st November 2011

Dear Parents,

I am delighted to be able to inform you that the calendar function on Farlington’s website (www.farlingtonschool.net) now has a “Month to View”, a function which I hope you will find useful. To find detailed information about a specific activity on a particular day, each individual event is clickable which provides further details. Below is a screen grab of how the calendar looks for December 2011 at the time of writing.

Finally, if I may draw your attention to our Facebook page, accessed via the website, and urge you to visit it and I hope "like us".
