Dear Parents,

Duke of Edinburgh Silver Award Assessed Expedition: Change of Dates

The Duke of Edinburgh's Silver Award Assessed Expedition will now take place from Friday 4th until Sunday 6th May, 2012, in the South Downs area of East Sussex. I have had to change the expedition dates due to the rearrangement of this year's GCSE examinations. Further details of the expedition will be sent in due course.

I apologise for any inconvenience this may cause.

Yours sincerely,

Mr A Trewhella
D of E Co-ordinator/BEL
